Custom Computer Specialists Honored as a 2011 Best Place to Work in RI

LINCOLN, RI (June 9, 2011) Custom Computer Specialists, Inc. (Custom), a leading technology services provider, is proud to announce it has been recognized as a 2011 Best Place to Work in RI. The awards, given annually by The Providence Business News and Best Companies Group, recognize outstanding companies in Rhode Island and south eastern Massachusetts. Winners are chosen based on detailed research conducted by Best Companies Group, including confidential employee surveys and analysis of company benefits and programs. Custom is one of just 14 companies in its category and 40 overall to be recognized.

Michael Davis, Vice President at Custom, shares his pride. "I am so happy for our team. Every day, I see how hard we work to support our customers and each other. This is great recognition for a great team."

As one of the Northeast's largest, privately-owned IT service and support providers, Custom works hard to create great customer value by establishing a positive work environment and investing in the programs, resources and tools to attract, retain and support the industry's most talented employees.

Now in its sixth year, the Best Places to Work in Rhode Island program will honor all recipients at a gala awards reception later in June. To learn more, visit www.pbn.com.
